Re: United States v. Latesha Mills, 19 Cr. 678 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

The Government writes, with the consent of the defendant, to request that the defendant's sentencing scheduled for January 18, 2021, and the associated deadlines for sentencing submissions, be adjourned. The defendant wishes to be sentenced in person. The parties understand, however, that the Court is unable to hold the sentencing in person at this time due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. See First Amended Standing Order, M-10-468 (CM) (Jan. 5, 2021) ("All criminal matters, including . . . sentencings, will be conducted remotely, unless (1) the defendants declines to waive the right to be physically present, and (2) the court concludes that the matter cannot be postponed, in conformity with the CARES Act"). The parties are available for sentencing after March 8, 2021 or at such time that the Court anticipates in-person appearances can resume.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS

Acting United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
